

Hilti offers outstanding career opportunities in one of the world's most successful companies in the construction industry.

Join the commercial track of our "OUTPERFORMER – Global Management Development Program" and accelerate your career with real challenges right from the start as an

OUTPERFORMER – Trainee (m/f) – Commercial Track

Are you ready for the challenge?

- Full responsibility from day one with an unlimited contract
- Demanding & international projects within 24 months
- Management exposure & mentoring by senior management
- Internal trainings & networking at global summits
- External management training at the "IMD Switzerland"

You are...

- recently graduated from university (master or PhD) with above-average degree in Engineering or Business Administration
- multilingual (fluent in English and Slovak at least) and willing to relocate internationally
- international experienced through studies, internships or first working experience
- highly interested in sales & general management
- a team player with excellent analytical and communications skills

Are you curious to accelerate your career? We are looking forward to receiving your application.

Application deadline: February 29, 2016

Assessment Center: April 21, 2016

Additional information on www.hilti.com/outperformer

Apply at kariera@hilti.sk